

Albert Einstein College of Medicine

Early Decision Policy (MD)

I. Purpose

This Policy details requirements for early decision on admission to Albert Einstein College of Medicine (“Einstein” or “College of Medicine”).

II. Scope

This Policy applies to applicants for the Einstein MD Program.

III. Policy

Applicants who are certain that Einstein is their first-choice school and whose qualifications, both academic and non-cognitive are outstanding, are encouraged to apply as early decision applicants. As such they may apply only to Einstein.

Applications for early decision must be submitted to AMCAS by August 1. All supporting documentation and letters of recommendation must be submitted no later than August 15. MCATS must be taken no later than July 7 prior to making application. An interview is required of all applicants under serious consideration for admission.

On the day of interview, applicants will have the opportunity to speak with the financial aid officer. All applicants will be notified of the decision of the Committee on Admissions by October 1. Successful students must accept the position offered.

Students who are not accepted to the Early Decision Program will be considered with the regular applicant pool and may make application to any other medical school.
