General Information

For 50 years the annual Chief Residents Leadership Conference (the “Tarrytown” meeting) has been the premier leadership training experience for incoming chief residents. Here's what previous Chief Residents had to say:

“What an amazing concept! I've been to leadership conferences before, but I've always been a passive recipient of information. Here, we were receiving training without even realizing it – much more effective.”

“An unmatched experience. Very demanding but incredible and rewarding.”
