

We want to hear from YOU!

We are dedicated to serving our community and want to hear how we can best serve and reach you.

Community Engagement Survey

Alzheimer's Disease Research Opportunity!

Painless device used at home can benefit mood & memory.
To learn more about the study or to request more information email nicead@einsteinmed.org or call (718) 430-3978.

Seeking children and adults with Autism Spectrum Disorders to participate in research exploring cognitive function and genetic factors related to Autism!

Participants are monetarily compensated and can receive a report of the cognitive assessments completed during the research study.

To learn more about their research, contact Alaina Berruti at cnl@einsteinmed.org or (718) 862-1826, to see what studies you may qualify for!

Researchers are seeking volunteers for a study on twice-a-day meals.

You may be eligible to participate if you are: Overweight, Age 30-75 (women only after menopause) & at risk for diabetes.

Qualifying volunteers will receive free food for 12 weeks.

To learn more contact

twoaday@einsteinmed.org or (718) 839-7326

If you're an adult (18+) cancer survivor living in the Bronx, you may be eligible for a survey study on psychosocial needs that will introduce you to a free cancer wellness program. To learn more, please contact the BOLD Program at (718) 430-2380 or cancersupport@einsteinmed.org

Children with Prader-Willi Syndrome may be eligible to participate in a study with Oxytocin to treat hyperphagia.

To take part children must be 6-17 years old and have hyperphagia. Compensation is provided.

Contact spectrum@Montefiore.org or call (929) 356-9477 to learn more!