

Albert Einstein College of Medicine

Graduate Programs in the Biomedical Sciences

The Graduate Division of Biomedical Sciences and the Einstein Minority Scientist Association (EMSA)

present the

Seventh Annual Marie M. Daly, Ph.D. Memorial Lecture

Marie Daly was the first African American woman in the United States to be awarded a Ph.D. in Chemistry. She received her degree from Columbia University and continued her groundbreaking research on health and the heart at the Albert Einstein College of Medicine. As a teacher of Biochemistry at Einstein she was dedicated to increasing the number of minority students in medical schools and graduate science programs.
